

Wendy P. King currently serves as lead for the Enterprise Content Management e-Discovery Project at the United States Department of the Treasury and is co-chair of the Treasury-wide e-Discovery Committee. She sits on the e-Discovery subcommittee of the Federal Cloud Compliance Committee and is an active member of Women in e-Discovery. Prior to joining Treasury, Ms. King was in private practice. She is licensed in Texas, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

Ms. King graduated as a Fulbright Honors Scholar with a bachelor of arts in political science from the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Arkansas where she also served as president of the student body. She earned a juris doctorate from the School of Law at The University of Texas at Austin and a master of laws in taxation from Georgetown University Law School.